

E-LEARNING RESOURCE

SECONDARY

For this booklet, you will need to listen to the 'Object of the Game' Podcast.

Q1 One step back, two steps forward:

Listen to Sydney 2000 Taekwondo gold medallist Lauren Burns in the museum's podcast series, Object of the Game. Consider what obstacles athletes need to overcome to reach the Olympics and what impacts postponing the Olympics may have on them mentally and physically.

Search for objects from the Sydney 2000 Olympics in our online collections and use the star button to save your favourites.

LISTEN HERE

VIEW THE COLLECTION

Q2 The original emoji!

Created for the Tokyo 1960 Olympics, pictograms have had an everlasting influence on our daily lives. Research more about the fascinating history of pictograms online. Have a go at creating your own pictograms with an Australian feel. Be sure to share with us by taking a picture, and tag us @australiansportsmuseum

For more inspiration read about how athletes are training for the 2021 Olympics and Paralympics here.

Q3 Sports manga!

Sports manga is a genre of Japanese manga and anime that focuses on stories involving sports and other athletic and competitive pursuits. Watch a short video here. Now do some further research and have a go and putting together your own sports manga.

Q4 Who is your favourite Olympian?

Once you've finished researching decide the best way to present your findings. It could be a small written biography, a short video or perhaps a podcast! It's up to you on how you rely your Olympian's success.

It's up to you on how you share your Olympian's story.

