Australian Sports Museum Limited Terms and Conditions

Australian Sports Museum Limited ABN 92 010 129 110 operates the Australian Sports Museum at the Melbourne Cricket Ground (the “MCG”). Australian Sports Museum Limited provides services including the sale and distribution of admission tickets to tourism products (each a “Product”) offered at the MCG. Australian Sports Museum Limited owns and operates the website at www.australiansportsmuseum.org.au (the “Website”).

By purchasing an admission ticket from Australian Sports Museum Limited, you agree to be bound by these Terms and Conditions, which relate to both the sale of admission tickets and attendance at the Products, and apply to both the original purchaser and any subsequent admission ticketholders. These Terms and Conditions and the provision of the Services to the purchaser are governed by the laws of the state of Victoria, Australia.

References to the “MCC” in these Terms and Conditions mean the Melbourne Cricket Club.

1. Conditions of entry

Admission tickets are sold subject to any additional terms and conditions of the MCG relating to the relevant Product (the “MCG Terms”), and admission to the Australian Sports Museum and/or the MCG is reserved and subject to the MCG Conditions of Entry (available at <https://www.mcg.org.au/the-stadium/visitor-information/conditions-of-entry>).

The MCG Terms will be made available on the Website, at the Australian Sports Museum at the time of purchase, and are also available from Australian Sports Museum Limited on request. The following form part of the MCG Terms unless otherwise specified in the MCG Terms:

- a) You may be denied entry into, or removed from, a Product where the MCG has reasonable grounds to do so, including if you are intoxicated, under the influence of illicit drugs, inappropriately attired or adversely affecting the enjoyment of the Product by other attendees.
- b) You may be refused entry into a Product if you arrive late to the scheduled time of the Product. We reserve the right to adjust the time or order of your visit if you arrive late to the scheduled time of the Product.
- c) You are not permitted to take into the Product, or use, professional cameras or other professional photographic or recording equipment without prior permission from the MCG or Australian Sports Museum Limited as applicable.
- d) You may be required to submit to a search of your person and/or possessions before entering the MCG.

- c) Annual Pass is valid for 365 days from the day of purchase, and is non-transferable and non-refundable.
- d) Visitors to the Australian Sports Museum and MCG Tours are eligible for upgrades to the Australian Sports Museum Annual Pass. Visitors must pay the difference between their entrance fees and the Annual Pass at the counter on the day of their visit. Upgrades are not applicable online.

4. Refunds and exchanges

The Australian Sports Museum Limited will offer a refund or exchange of an admission ticket in the following events:

- a) if the Product is cancelled or rescheduled by the Australian Sports Museum Limited and/or the MCC (and you cannot or do not wish to attend the rescheduled Product); or
- b) to the extent otherwise required by law (including the Australian Consumer Law).

Australian Sports Museum Limited does not offer refunds or exchanges as a result of a change in your personal circumstances.

You must apply for a refund within two weeks of the notification that the Product has been cancelled or rescheduled. To apply for a refund, please email management at contactus@australiansportsmuseum.org.au. Within the email, the following must be included in order to meet the conditions for a refund:

- a) Name of the booking holder
- b) Booking number
- c) Proof of purchase

If a Product is cancelled or rescheduled by the Australian Sports Museum Limited and/or the MCC, Australian Sports Museum Limited and/or the MCC's liability is limited to the amount for which the ticket was purchased (including any fees or charges). Proof of purchase may be required for any refund or exchange. Unless required by law (including the Australian Consumer Law), Australian Sports Museum Limited or the MCC will not be liable for any other losses incurred by you as a result of the cancellation or rescheduling of a Product, including for the avoidance of doubt any travel or accommodation expenses.

5. Variations to Products

Australian Sports Museum Limited reserves the right to add, withdraw, reschedule or substitute Products and/or vary advertised programs, prices, venues, or audience capacity, and any variation to a Product will not give rise to any right to a refund or exchange of a purchased admission ticket.

6. Resale of tickets & scalping

Admission tickets may not, without the prior written consent of Australian Sports Museum Limited:

- a) be resold or offered for resale at a premium (including via on-line auction or other unauthorised resale sites);
- b) be used for advertising, promotion or other commercial purposes (including competitions and trade promotions); or
- c) be offered for sale in packages with other goods or services.

If an admission ticket is sold or used in breach of the above, the admission ticket may be cancelled without a refund and the admission ticketholder of the ticket may be refused admission to the Product, without notice to you.

7. Administrative Errors

Australian Sports Museum Limited uses best endeavours to ensure that admission tickets are correctly priced and only available for sale when intended. Notwithstanding this, processing errors may occur from time to time. In the event of an availability error, the Australian Sports Museum Limited will contact you and may cancel or reschedule an order (refer to the Refunds & Exchanges section above). In the event of a pricing error, Australian Sports Museum Limited will endeavour to contact you to give you the option of purchasing the admission ticket at the correct price.

If an error on your behalf results in Australian Sports Museum Limited reprocessing the admission ticket transaction at your request, Australian Sports Museum Limited may charge to you the actual costs incurred in reprocessing the ticket transaction, including any chargeback or postage fees charged to Australian Sports Museum Limited by a third party.

8. Sensory Friendly Space

A sensory friendly space is located with the Australian Sports Museum, this is a space for patrons of all ages who have sensory sensitivities, processing differences or other hidden disabilities.
